

Título. Características cefalométricas dentarias y esqueléticas de los pacientes que presentan maloclusiones clase III en la especialidad de ortodoncia en la gestión 2007 – 2010

Tipo de trabajo: Trabajo para optar el título de especialista en ortodoncia

Nombre del autor: Fernando Nelson Ríos Michel

Abstract

The dental professionals and students in clinical Orthodontics, Faculty of Dentistry Sucre not have guides texts containing technical, scientific and updated for the diagnosis and treatment of Class III malocclusion information. What determines carried out in many cases empirical treatment the possibility of causing functional and aesthetic damage to patient since it is impossible to make orthodontic treatment unplanned well.

The study population consisted of 26 patients diagnosed with class III in the specialty of Orthodontics, Universidad Mayor Real y Pontificia de San Francisco Xavier de Chuquisaca in managing 2007-2010 population had their cephalometric

Being, Class III, a dentoalveolar and skeletal problem difficult to understand; either by its etiology, genetics, diagnosis, treatment, prognosis the essential use of a practical guide to fix it is recommended.

Keywords: treatment of Class III malocclusion