

Titulo. Determinación de la discrepancia de masa dentaria en pacientes con apiñamiento comprendidos entre 11 a 20 años de edad que acudieron a la clínica de la especialidad de ortodoncia de la U.M.R.P.S.F.X.CH. de la ciudad de sucre en la gestión 2009

Tipo de trabajo: Trabajo para optar el título de especialista en ortodoncia

Nombre del autor: Carlos Abel Venegas Baldiviezo

Abstract

The dental models are the most important records in most of orthodontic care, are invaluable for treatment planning. In the middle of methods of measurement models used by foreign authors, no studies exist in Bolivia raised and contextualized to the local environment, in this understanding in the present investigation the following overall goal is posed: " Determine the frequency of the discrepancy of tooth mass from analysis of Bolton, in patients aged 11 to 20 years who attended the clinic of the Specialty of Orthodontics at the University of San Francisco Xavier de Chuquisaca city of Sucre.

The researcher analyzed the models obtained from patients in a systematic and planned manner through a record collection composed data. Observation was used to perform the semio-Stomatological examination of patients, to analyze and measured using a digital caliper and a millimeter ruler models obtained therefrom.

Keywords: records, dental models, orthodontic analysis Bolton